

Do You Own A Woodburning, Coal or Pellet Stove?

Don't Jeopardize Your Life or Your Property!

Fuel-burning stoves increase the hazards under your policy and must be reported to the company. Please return this questionnaire today. This form can be returned with your payment.

1. Type of stove: Wood Coal Pellet
2. Stove manufacturer _____
Model Number _____
Style: Franklin, Parlor, Pot belly, Fireplace insert, Other: _____
3. Is the stove UL approved? Yes No
4. Did a professional contractor install both the stove and the chimney? Yes No
5. When was the stove installed? _____
6. Has the installation been inspected and approved by a local fire department or building inspector?
Yes No If yes, when? _____
7. Is the stove located on non-combustible floor material? Yes No
8. Is the stove at least 36" from any combustible material including the wood supply? Yes No
9. What distance is the stovepipe from the ceiling? _____
or from combustible side walls? _____
10. Is the chimney constructed either of masonry or UL approved all-fuel metal? Yes No
11. How often is the chimney cleaned? _____
12. Does the chimney extend at least three feet above the roof level and at least two feet above any portion of the roof within a ten foot radius? Yes No
13. How is the stove vented? Check below:
 built into fireplace stovepipe through wall
 stovepipe through ceiling stovepipe into chimney
14. Does the stovepipe pass through a wall or ceiling via a ventilated thimble? Yes No
Are thimbles at least 3 times the diameter of the stovepipe? Yes No
15. Are ashes placed in sealed metal containers only? Yes No If no, explain:

16. Is the stove the sole source of heat in your home? Yes No
17. Have you installed the following? (premium credits available in some states)
Smoke detector or local fire alarm? Yes No
Alarm system that alerts fire dept.? Yes No
Central station fire alarm? Yes No

Policy Number _____

Name _____